The work involves responsibility for performing paralegal duties in a municipal office. Under the supervision of an attorney and a Paralegal III, an employee in this class performs a variety of tasks that while not requiring the skills of an attorney do entail the application of legal procedures and legal research as well as the preparation of legal documents for submission to the courts. An employee in this class may also assist an attorney in preparing for and appearing in a trial. The specific tasks performed may vary depending on the department assignment; however, work performed remains within the broad scope of paralegal skills. General direction is received from a Paralegal III and/or attorney with wide leeway permitted for the exercise of independent judgement in accordance with established policies and procedures. The incumbent provides direct supervision to assigned Paralegals. Does related work as required.

This position is non-competitive and covered under the HELP Program. Information on the HELP Program can be found here:
