The work involves responsibility for planning, assigning and supervising major account keeping activities and/or independently performing difficult and responsible account keeping functions. Work is performed under general supervision in accordance with outlined policies and procedures allowing for the exercise of independent judgment in planning and carrying out the details of the work. Difficult technical or policy problems are referred to a supervisor for decision, or review of judgment where recommendations are initiated. This class differs from that of Account Clerical III by the more difficult and complex nature of the assignments and the independence allowed in carrying out the work and/or by the supervisory responsibilities of subordinate staff. Does related work as required.

This position is non-competitive and covered under the HELP Program. Information on the HELP Program can be found here:
